Both Parties agree that the provisions of this Article shall continue to be binding between the parties notwithstanding the termination of this Memorandum of Understanding.

ARTICLE 10: Personal Data Protection

During the course of dealings between the Parties and in connection with the performance of this Memorandum of Understanding, the Parties acknowledge that they need to process (as defined under the Personal Data Protection Act 2010) Personal Data (as defined under the Personal Data Protection Act 2010) belonging to or supplied by each Party from time to time by electronic or paper-based means.

By entering into this Memorandum of Understanding, the Parties expressly and explicitly acknowledge and consent to the processing of such Personal Data by each Party for the purpose of performance of this Memorandum of Understanding and for all other purposes that are necessary, incidental or related to the performance of this Memorandum of Understanding. This includes:

- i. processing of such Personal Data within and, where necessary, outside Malaysia;
- ii. transfer and disclosure of such Personal Data to third parties authorised by each Party within and, where necessary, outside Malaysia, provided that these third parties in turn undertake to keep such Personal Data confidential; and
- iii. transfer and disclosure of such Personal Data to any persons, authorities or regulators to whom the Parties are compelled, permitted or required under the law to disclose to.

For the purpose of this Article, the term "third parties" includes but is not limited to each Party's related companies, vendors, suppliers, business partners, professional advisers, agents, contractors, third party service providers, insurance companies, banks and financial institutions.

To the extent that a Party has disclosed the Personal Data of its employees, agents or other third parties to the other Party, the disclosing Party warrants and represents that it has obtained the relevant individual's consent to disclose such Personal Data to the other Party in accordance with this Article and for the purpose of the performance of this Memorandum of Understanding, and for all other purposes that are necessary, incidental or related to the performance of this Memorandum of Understanding.

The Parties warrant and represent that all Personal Data disclosed or to be disclosed to the other Party is accurate and complete, and that none of it is misleading or out of date as of the date of disclosure. The Parties shall promptly update each Party in the event of any change to such Personal Data.

ARTICLE 11: Suspension

Each Party reserves the right for reasons of national security, national interest, public order or public health to suspend temporarily, either in whole or in part, the implementation of this Memorandum of Understanding which suspension shall take effect immediately after notification has been given to the other Party through diplomatic channels.

ARTICLE 12: Governing Law and Settlement of Disputes

This Memorandum of Understanding shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Malaysia.

Any difference or dispute between the Parties concerning the interpretation and/or implementation and/or application of any of the provisions of this Memorandum of Understanding shall be settled amicably through mutual consultation and/or negotiations between the parties through diplomatic channels, without reference to any third party or international tribunal.

ARTICLE 13: Amendment, Variation and Modification

No amendment, variation, or modification to this Memorandum of Understanding shall be effective unless made in writing and duly signed by the Parties or its duly authorized representatives. It shall form part of this Memorandum of Understanding.

Such amendment, variation or modification shall come into force on such date as may be determined by the Parties by mutual agreement.

ARTICLE 14: Assignment

This Memorandum of Understanding shall not be assignable by either Party without the prior written consent of the other Party. Any and all assignments not made in accordance with this Memorandum of Understanding shall be void.

ARTICLE 15: Notices

Any notice, approval or request required or permitted to be given or made under this Memorandum of Understanding shall be in writing and in English Language. Such notice, approval or request shall be deemed to be duly given or made when it shall have been delivered by hand, prepaid registered post or facsimile to the Party to which is required to be given or made at such Party's address specified below, or at such other address as either Party may specify in writing.

Any notice sent by facsimile shall be deemed served when dispatched and any notice served by prepaid registered post shall be deemed served forty-eight (48) hours after dispatch thereof. In proving the service of any notice it shall be sufficient to prove in the case of a letter that such letter was properly stamped addressed and placed in the post or delivered or left at the current address if delivered personally and in the case of a facsimile transmission was duly dispatched to the facsimile number of the addressee given above or subsequently notified for the purposes of this Memorandum of Understanding.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have hereto, caused this Memorandum of Understanding to be duly executed as at the date first above mentioned.
